Definitive Feasibility Study Update – Khnaiguiyah Zinc-Copper Project

Perth: Australian-based minerals exploration and development company Alara Resources Limited (ASX: AUQ) (“Alara” or “Company”) is pleased to provide an update on the progress of the Definitive Feasibility Study (“DFS” or “Study”) report at its flagship Khnaiguiyah Zinc-Copper Project in Saudi Arabia.

The Company had previously foreshadowed the completion of the DFS report by the end of June.

The Company has received a draft copy of the DFS report from Ausenco, the lead consultant for the Study and is reviewing the draft report along with the other consulting firms involved in the study.

The Company expects to confirm and release the results of the DFS within the next 4 weeks.
